

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

This MoU is signed between Pragati Green Meadows Pvt. Ltd. & Pragati Bio-Pharma Pvt. Ltd., Hyderabad, India and Association for Ayurvedic Professionals of North America (AAPNA), Pennsylvania US through their respective authorized signatories at US on 14.08.2011 at Boston following the 3rd international conference. The following terms and conditions have been accepted by both the parties :

- 1.) With the increasing demand for Ayurveda across the globe, Pragati is initiating the teaching and training programs for the foreign students at its Pragati Sparsh Resorts at Hyderabad, India. AAPNA which is a non-profitable organization in US is keen to utilize the facility for the teaching and training of their students in India.
- 2.) Pragati Agrees to provide 10 day training program including stay and food for the students sponsored by AAPNA in India. In turn AAPNA shall compensate / bare the expenses for the conduction of classes etc. The fees and course structure may be decided mutually from time to time.
- 3.) Pragati will engage either its own team or any other members as may be demanded by the students from time to impart the knowledge on Ayurveda (not for practice).
- 4.) The main aim and objectives of this MoU is to promote teaching, research and practice of Ayurveda to physicians and other amateur health practitioners sent by AAPNA.
- 5.) We are trustful that this association or cooperation between Pragati and AAPNA can contribute towards positive health across the globe and may also provide a step forward for the recognition of practice of Ayurveda in US in the coming years.
- 6.) It is clearly understood between both the parties that the activity shall be within the legal parameters of the respective countries.
- 7.) This MoU is at WILL and does not invite any legal implications.

Signed and executed on 14th August 2001 at Boston, USA by Dr. G.B.K.Rao, Chairman & Managing Director, Pragati Group of Companies, Hyderabad, India and by Dr. A.V.Shekhar, President, AAPNA, Pennsylvania, US

[DR. G. B. K. RAO]

[DR. A. V. SHEKHAR]

Witness:

1.

2.